To

The Mulkai Superintendent and Secretary to the Government of His Highness the Maharaja

of Mysore,

BANGALORE.

Sir,

So far back as 1896, a philanthropic Sanyasi, Sri Visvesvarananda Sarasvathi was moved to tears at the sad plight of two sickly orphans of the City with no body to take care of them. He took them to his own Mutt and brought them up with paternal care. On the 24th May 1896, a meeting of the citizens of the place was held to confer on the advisability of starting an Orphanage. His own residence, the Niranjan Mutt was made the abode of the Orphans.

The first set of members of the Arya Matha Pravardhini Sabha, among whom were Messrs. M. Venkatakrishnayah and H. Krishna Rao, (Still Members) were the members of the institution. Sri Visvesvarananda became the Vice-President, Manager and guardian of the Orphans. By the enthusiasm and philanthropic spirit of the Pravardhini Sabha, funds were collected for the upkeep of the institution when, after a short time, the Sabha dissolved and was no more, the Swamiji begged from door to door to keep alive the institution which he had so affectionately set on foot. The number of orphans increased and with the help of the President, Mr. Puttaji Urs and Mr. Dasappa, the construction of a new block of buildings began. In this work, the present president of the Orphanage Mr. Amble Annaiah Pandit was also associated. The building was half completed when unfortunately Mr. Dasappa passed away leaving a widow widow to mourn his loss.

The Swamiji was still undaunted and at once went on a collection tour, and has not yet returned since his departure in July 1898. But Mrs. Dasappa (Lingamma) with great effort and expense, completed the construction of the building.

After the departure of the Swamiji, the Committee appointed a manager to look after the institution. A violent outbreak of plague in the city helped to swell the number of orphans and the additional expenses which thus became necessary were met by the contribution of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore who kindly consented in November 1903 to supply the institution with one Palla of rice from the Palace, per month. We have been regularly receiving the rice till now and beg to acknowledge the debt of gratitude we owe to His Highness for this act of kindness.

We began to receive a monthly grant of Rs.50/- in the year 1904 from the Government when the strength of the institution was about 12. 1911 was an Epoch-making year in the annals of the institution. The late Mr. Mirle Krishnappa bequeathed some wet lands with an annual yield of nearly 83 candies of paddy for the welfare of 10 poor students of the Babboor Kamma Community. An additional grant of Rs.12,000 by him, formed the permanent fund of the Mirle Krishnappa's Charities. His charities were looked after by a committee of Trustees with Mr. H. Narasinga Rao, Advocate, and Mr. M.N. Venkataramiah, B.A.B.L., Advocate as Joint-Secretaries. The amalgamation of the two committees has proved very fruitful to both.

In the year 1915, an appeal to increase the grant to meet the expenses of maintaining nearly thrice the number of orphans was readily responded to by the Government and when we have been getting the grant of Rs.100 per month regularly from the Government.

The recent rise in prices coupled with the ever increasing demand of poor orphans, besides the 60 already being maintained, has weighed heavily upon our resources; and unless the Government comes to the rescue, we will be unable to conduct the institution satisfactorily.

We pray therefore for an additional grant of Rs.100/- for which act of kindness, we shall, as in duty bound, ever pray.

My dear Sir

I beg permission to send herewith the application of the Committee of the Anathalaya or Orphanage, Mysore.

In a private interview in Mysore, I represented to you how the Committee of the Ana Kalaya has been unable to maintain the orphans, owing to the rise in the price of foodstuffs. I begged of you to be pleased to raise the Mazrai grant for the Institution from Rs 100 to Rs 200. You were pleased to say that an application may be made.
